ESL Course Objectives:

The American Learning Institute (ALI) serves the main goal to service international students in their endeavor to become educated in the English language. Our classes give students the opportunity to learn speaking, listening, writing, and reading skills; which will prepare them for opportunities in their future employment or for further studying. Our emphasis on the importance of English communication is provided by a curriculum of comprehensive classes for all of the four skills.

About the American Language Institute

Located in Dallas, Texas, the American Language Institute (ALI) was founded in March 2009. ALI was established with the goal of servicing a complete learning academy for individuals seeking an understanding of the English language.

ALI is a SEVP-certified, ESL institute specializing in English teaching to international students. We strive to provide the best education of the English language to help our students have personal and academic confidence. Our classes are geared to suit both academic and non-academic needs.

Mission Statement

American Learning Institute (ALI)'s mission is to contribute to students' aspiration and their success by providing practical English language communication skills training, and acquiring financial stability.

Our advisors are here to assist all incoming students. We provide legal services to ensure that the students' period of their stay is supported by all legal documents. We seek to minimize any legal complications and aid students' in their grades, attendance, and all other requirements.
